World Rugby Museum Terms & Conditions

1. These Terms and Conditions apply to all admissions to the World Rugby Museum at Twickenham Stadium ("the Museum") and all ticket holders shall be deemed to have accepted these Terms and Conditions. These Terms and Conditions are subject to the RFU's Ground Rules, a copy of which is available on <https://www.englandrugby.com/twickenham/ground-rules/>.
2. All ticket sales are final. In the event of a ticket holder no longer being able to attend, the RFU will use its reasonable endeavours to move the ticket holder's entry to another date (if such alternative date is available). No refunds or exchanges will be given. In the event of a pre-paid group arriving with fewer people than the number of tickets purchased, no refunds will be given.
3. The RFU reserves the right to close the Museum where this is reasonably necessary. In such circumstances, notice shall (if reasonably possible) be given to the applicable ticket holders and such ticket holders shall be entitled to either accept an admission to the Museum at a later date or to receive a refund. No other compensation shall be payable.
4. No ticket to the Museum may be re-sold or transferred by the original purchaser to any third person (or persons). Advertising tickets to the Museum for sale in any forum including on any on-line auction or other website is also strictly prohibited. Any such re-sale shall render the ticket void. Tickets remain the property of the RFU at all times.
5. All promotions are run independently and no two or more promotions can be claimed at any one time.
6. All ticket holders must, throughout their visit to the Museum and whilst they are on the RFU property, follow all lawful directions of the representatives of the RFU and comply with all applicable laws.
7. If at any time the RFU believes that the behaviour of a ticket holder is unacceptable or likely to cause damage or injury to either that individual, any other person or the Museum (including but not limited to drunken or unacceptable behaviour, any acts likely to cause damage or injury, threatening, disrespectful or violent behaviour), the RFU may ask the ticket holder to leave without compensation or refund. The ticket holder shall also be liable to the RFU for all costs, losses and liabilities resulting from that ticket holder's actions.
8. All juniors (aged 15 years or less "Juniors") must be accompanied by his/her parent or guardian or other adult who accepts full responsibility for him/her.
9. In respect of groups of Juniors, there must be at least one Responsible Adult accompanying the group at all times per ten Juniors. The RFU will permit free entry of one Responsible Adult per ten Juniors; any further adults shall be charged the usual entry fee. The group leader must sign the RFU Responsibility for a Minor Declaration accordingly ("Responsible Adult") on arrival.

10. If, in its sole discretion, the RFU deems that certain dress is inappropriate to enter part(s) of the Museum, RFU will be entitled to refuse admission to ticket holders to such part(s) without refund or compensation.

11. No food, drink or items liable to cause any damage to the Museum may be brought into it. All litter must be discarded appropriately or removed immediately.

12. The RFU cannot guarantee that all advertised elements of the Museum will be accessible at all times and the RFU reserves the right to close sections of the Museum without compensation or refund.

13. Ticket holders may take photographs (without using a flash) for their own private purposes. However, to protect against damage to the exhibits, flash photography is strictly prohibited at the Museum. The possession or operation of recording or transmission equipment of any kind for any commercial use is prohibited at the Museum. This includes, without limitation, photography, filming, audio and any other recording or transmission. As a condition of entry to Twickenham Stadium you assign (by way of present assignment of future copyright) the copyright in any photographs or recordings that you make in breach of this prohibition to the RFU.

14. The RFU shall be entitled to refuse admission or re-admission to, or to eject from the Museum, any person who does not comply with these Terms and Conditions.

15. Admission to the World Rugby Museum at Twickenham Stadium is at the ticket holder's own risk. The RFU cannot accept responsibility for property lost or stolen at Twickenham Stadium.

16. We will not accept responsibility for your overall enjoyment. Whilst every effort will be made to maximise your pleasure and experience, it is accepted that every person's preference and tastes are unique and it would be impossible to satisfy all of our customers all of the time. However, we recognise that our own success is dependent on word of mouth referral and prioritise customer satisfaction accordingly.

17. The personal data you provide to us will be handled in accordance with the RFU's privacy policy, a copy of which is available on <https://www.englandrugby.com/about-the-rfu/privacy-policy/>.

2. Ticket holders should arrive no later than 15 minutes prior to their Stadium Tour start time and come to the ticket desk within the England Rugby Store. 5. The RFU reserves the right to cancel a Stadium Tour where this is reasonably necessary. In such circumstances, notice shall (if reasonably possible) be given to the applicable ticket holders and such ticket holders shall be entitled to either accept an alternative date/time or to receive a refund. No other compensation shall be payable.
6. No ticket to the Stadium Tour may be sold by the original purchaser to a person (or persons) for a price which is greater than the face value of the ticket. The ticket holder shall also be liable to the RFU for all costs, losses and liabilities resulting from that ticket holder's actions.
